OUR SCHOOL SERVICE CENTER

The Centre de services scolaire du Littoral is comprised of seven (7) English-speaking villages and three (3) French-speaking villages, spread out from Kegaska to Blanc-Sablon, including Port-Menier on Anticosti Island; our territory covers a total area of 460 kilometres, with a respective population ranging from 100 to 1,200 inhabitants.

We believe that education is the key to success. Through our 3 guiding values of Engagement, Collaboration, and Innovation, we work to improve the lives of our children and our communities. The Centre de services scolaire du Littoral offers preschool, elementary and secondary education, as well as general adult education, in French and English.

We offer excellent employment opportunities in teaching as well as other important areas supporting students; we are looking for people who are interested in enhancing students' education in vibrant communities across the Lower North Shore.
